C69 2005z1 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)726192151 Subject: Television programs -- United States -- Rating -- Methodology. Excerpt: . . . on the people meters. Rural viewers are very important to me. When I ran a network in television and radio stations, I had to depend totally on Nielsen data for my business. So, I hope Nielsen will cooperate with the MRC on this. If it does not, in my mind, that is another important reason that the bill should pass. Nielsen ratings determine the value of literally billions of dollars in advertising. Because our TV industry is supported largely by advertising dollars, Nielsen ratings, in the end, determine which television shows get aired and which get canceled; and so, ultimately, determine what kind of content is distributed on our public airways. So, television rating systems have extraordinary cultural, social, and economic implications. Even in the era of the Internet, television remains our national town hall. It is a medium that brings Americans together, and it is shared space that shapes our national experience. And in a very real sense, the ratings generated by Nielsen determine content that is available in that shared space. So, the American public has a clear and compelling interest in ensuring that these ratings systems are as fair and accurate as possible. All viewers must be counted. I hope we can agree on that. And I believe that the FAIR Ratings bill is an important step in that direction. I have no one to hand the football off to, so we will start taking testimony this morning. We want to--or this afternoon-- we want to thank everyone in attendance....
