They profess in the clearest manner faith in the expiatory sacrifice of our Saviour as the only means of reaching heaven, and altogether they present a most astonishing compound of truth and error. Some here call them Mormonites, some Puritans, some Fanatics, and a hundred other names; but the fact is, wo scarcely know sufficient of them, even now, to judge what they truly are, and what they intend. A letter, also, from the British chaplain at Shangnao, written to.mo immediately after the return of the British steamer from Nankin, contains the following interesting statement: -- The Hermes returned from Nankin yesterday, bringing the strangest news. The rebels are really a body of Christians! That is to say, they have renounced idolatry, worship Jehevah and Jesus, and believe in the Trinity! I have several of their books now lying before me; one is the Book of Genesis, another is an almanac with all the Sabbath Days marked. They have a calendar of their own, in which the year is made to consist of 36G days. Another book is a Sun-tze-king, containing an abstract of the true religion from the creation downwards....
