Those placed by government in control of educational affairs report, Spelling is not what it ought to be. Text-books should be used for this subject. What we want is to teach spelling and not merely to practice spelling. A spelling-book revival in England seems to be the result. In the foremost educational center of our own country, the experiment of teaching spelling without the aid of a special text-book has been tried with results so far from satisfactory that the spelling-book has been restored. Wherever the subject of spelling has been most seriously considered, a strong reaction in favor of a suitable text-book is...
