Excerpt: . . . such men as Jeckcr, who had no other object in view than that of obtaining so base and iniquitous advantages from a war which has been called a War of Intervention; the records of which constitute the First Charge, and others, which are of public notoriety. To this Maximilian replied, that this question being a political one, he would refer them to what he had before answered. The Fiscal, after admonishing the defendant, repeated the charge twice to him, without receiving any other answer than the former one. Being asked and warned to answer to the charge of having come to second and put in practice the plans above referred to of the French Government, without any other title than that which the armed force of the same Government gave him, and a few votes, which he pretended to call the national will, notwithstanding that...
