Excerpt: .there must be a good deal of ado about nothing on the part of the teacher who professes to be working along new lines. The new music teaching aims to make the music work more than anything else an ethical-experience for children, and by this same token it will only be attempted by teachers whose ethical experience has taken such direction as to make this sort of teaming the only expression possible to them. T-he-simple determination to be up-to-date can no more lead one to the new point of view than-the determination to be conservative can keep one from it, providing the train is laid in general experience by one s habitual mode of thought and feeling. Like all those things that have to do with the subjective life, the new music iteachling is harder to define. harder to put into recipe, harder...
