Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from North Carolina Journal of Education, 1897, Vol. 1 The Journal of Education asks the continued co-operation of all friends of humanity in hastening this day. The enlistment is for the war. The Woman s Aid Society. - Almost even-social institution is helped, in these days, by some kind of woman s aid society. The Y. M. C. A., the hospital, the parsonage, the rectory, the missionary cause, the church building, all charities of whatever nature have their associations of this kind, and they render very material aid. Why should not every public school have its woman s aid society? The school is not only the training ground for the children; it is also their home for a great part of their early life. What nobler thing can mothers and young ladies undertake than to aid in making the school more efficient and the homes of their children and younger brothers and sisters more comfortable and attractive? The ladies of Lincolnton, N. C., led by Miss Hoke, Mrs. Bynum and others, have organized such a society....
