Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Always wanted to go see Alaska, the 49th state, but never could work it out? Well, never fear, because after reading these stories, you ll probably change your mind and decide to instead visit someplace safe and predictable. In this baker s dozen of all new and original stories from Rusty Wilson, the World s Greatest Bigfoot Storyteller, you ll see an Alaska that few see, an Alaska that maybe even fewer want to see, and an Alaska that puts all the other states to shame for mysterious places and happenings, as well as having the highest number per capita of people who go missing without a trace. Come read about a photographer who finally gets his wish to see the Northern Lights, only to find there are other things that glow in the Arctic wilds-then read about the Kodiak bear guide who finds much more than he was hunting for-and there s the soldier who ends up finding something just a little unusual while out surveying the Alcan Highway-then read about the native Alaskan who s haunted by a dream of epic proportions-and, if you dare, ride along with a young native girl on a snowmachine as her attempt to save her mother s life looks like it may end in sinister disaster-and there s the strange sight seen by two roustabouts out checking an oil pipeline-and the bush pilot who sees a chilling sight on one of Alaska s largest glaciers-and the story of almost catching something besides salmon in fish camp-then read about the elusive and very destructive Copper People-two guys who go hunting with a drone and find exactly what they were looking for...
