Thy tenderness will flow towards us in perpetual fulness. We bow our heads before Thee, and make confession of our sin: we have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. We implore Thy forgiveness through Jesus Christ our blessed and infinite Redeemer. Wherein our conscience is oppressed as with a great weight, wherein our life is made gloomy by the darkness of sin, the Lord manifest Himself towards us in pity and compassion. The Lord be merciful unto us, remembering that we came of the dust, and that we are but as a wind that cometh for a little time and then passeth away. Pity our littlenesses, and let our infirmities become sacred unto Thee as opportunities for the exercise of Thy gracious power. Thou knowest what anger is left in our hearts, what pride, what ambition, what self-sufficiency; and what cunning secret trust there is that after all the key of the kingdom may fall into our hands, and be used according to our desire. Lord, cleanse our hearts of these evil spirits, and leave none of them behind, but reign Thyself in the chambers Thou hast purified. O God of Bethel, by whose hand Thy people still are fed; Who through this weary pilgrimage Hast all our fathers led. Our vows, our prayers, we now present Before Thy throne of grace; God of our fathers, be the...
